

House Resolution No. 280

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives truly value high school sports programs that provide the opportunity for Show-Me State youth to learn invaluable lessons concerning teamwork and preparation which will invariably assist them in the future as they take their rightful places as neighborhood, community, and societal leaders; and

Whereas, the 2001 Cape Girardeau Central High School 4A Tigers football team completed another successful season by earning an impressive 6-4 win-loss record during regular season play, capturing the District 1 Championships for the second year in a row, and repeating their 2000 win in 4A Sectional competition to advance to the State Quarterfinals; and

Whereas, enjoying a longstanding tradition of Friday Night Football, the Tigers played six of ten games on the road and sandwiched in two Thursday night contests and one Saturday afternoon game during the 2001 season which witnessed the return of a solid core of fifteen upperclass lettermen; and

Whereas, led by six-year veteran and three-year Head Coach Lawrence Brookins with assistance from Coaches Steve Williams, Bobby Haggerty, Darrick Smith, and Greg Klund, the Central High School Tigers team is composed of Jason Beard, Bryan Crain, Justin Wells, B.J. Tanksley, Shannon Mungle, Mariand Heard, Andrew Eaton, William Cannon, Nick Teichman, Chris Smith, Monroe Hicks, Kevin Allen, Seth Hudson, Chris Daniel, David Allen, Sherm Wilkins, Walter Lents, Kenneth Lowe, Foster McGinty, Jeremiah Dukes, Adrian Wren, Jordan White, Josh Ford, Jay Ruark, Ricky Williams, Lance West, Brandon Francis, Chris Conrad, Michael Zimmer, Chris Jones, Clay Scherman, Mitch Craft, Darren Neels, Josh Radke, Kyle Duncan, Marcus Klund, Colin Scherman, Martez Bell, David Hammond, Dan Willingham, Chuck Jones, Jason Poole, Brent Humphries, Patrick Slattery, Phil Kiefner, Brandon Dieteker, Mark Dunaway, Pierce Yates, Sean Bard, Phil Brooks, David Jones, Josh Poole, Brandon Pender, T.J. Bishop, Kyle Schuessler, and Randy Smith with Marquita Brookins, Marquis Brookins, Dana Kinder, Matt Klund, and Jordan Carver serving as Managers:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exemplary training, impressive determination and drive, and stellar accomplishments of the Central High School Tigers football team members and to convey to them this legislative body's congratulations upon attaining their second consecutive 4A Sectional Championship title and our best wishes for continued individual and team success for many years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution to commemorate the Cape Girardeau Central High School Tigers 2001 football season.
